The crucial importance of shifting finance to address the climate crisis (webinar 1) November 24, 2020. 1-2 pm ET

Where money is being invested in the global economy is an often overlooked, but critical piece of the puzzle in solving the climate crisis. Join climate expert Adam Scott, Director of Shift: Action for Pension Wealth & Planet Health for the first of two workshops exploring why shifting finance is essential for addressing the climate emergency and protecting investments from growing climate risks.

How to engage those managing your retirement savings on climate (webinar 2) December 1, 2020. 1-2 ET

Learn how to take action to ensure your retirement savings are being invested in the solutions to the climate crisis, not the causes. Join climate expert Adam Scott, Director of Shift: Action for Pension Wealth & Planet Health for part two of our series exploring ways to effectively engage your pension fund and shift your personal investments to protect your savings while leaving a lasting climate legacy for future generations.
