

2020 Group of 78 Policy Forum
The Future of Peacekeeping in the Transition to a More Peaceful World:
Why UN peace operations are critical and need to be expanded

Panel 5: Conclusions and Recommendations

Wednesday February 3, 2021 from 3:00 – 4:30 pm EST

We are delighted to announce the details of our grand finale webinar in the Group of 78 six-session series of Webinars on the Future of UN Peacekeeping in the Transition to a More Peaceful World: Why UN peace operations are critical and need to be expanded. The focus, as promised, will be on key recommendations for action by governments – especially our own, by parliamentarians and by civil society. We promise a lively, thought provoking, action-oriented discussion and question time!

The five previous webinars in this series are all available on YouTube

Panelists:

- Dr. Jane Boulden, Canada Research Chair in International Relations, at the Royal Military College of Canada, with a particular focus on UN efforts to manage conflict (Speaking from Kingston, Ontario)
- Dr. Walter Dorn, RMC and Canadian Forces College professor, author, and a leading Canadian expert on UN peacekeeping including new technologies (Speaking from Toronto)
- Dr. Howard Peter Langille, Author and lead expert on UN Emergency Peace Service and “sustainable common security”. (Speaking from Ottawa)

Moderator:

- Peggy Mason, President of Rideau Institute, former Amb for Disarmament to the UN, former peacekeeping trainer (1995-2014), (Speaking from Ottawa)

Ticket options:

- $10.00 Suggested for general admission (register through Eventbrite, thank you for your support!)
- Full pass holders do not need to register; you have been automatically registered.
- Free general admission

Online Registration

Thank you to co-sponsors!

